

Sales & Marketing Consultant Sydney CBD

- Growing team
- One culture
- National Presence

Having a solid reputation nationally for their delivery to market in the Built environment our client takes pride in promoting one culture throughout the business, offering full training and a full introduction the business nationally, for the integration of their employees. They are a team who are enthusiastic and take an interest in people and their careers, both internal and external to the business.

Due to the increasing growth of the business they require a solid recruiter who will work across Sales & Marketing within Property and Construction. You will know your sector and join a successful business with talented and motivated people; you will be offered a development plan to assist you with your career.

If you have a minimum of 2 years plus current experience recruiting in this sector and have the ability to build and run a successful desk, within a cohesive team then this could be your next opportunity.

On offer is an above average salary package and monthly commission plus quarterly Incentives. In this competitive marketplace, how do you know you're making the right decision?

Please call Tracey Beidham 0409 599 303 tracey@entiretyrec2rec.com.au or Kym Hammond 0405 226 982 kym@entiretyrec2rec.com.au regarding this role and other opportunities.