

ER259 Commercial Recruitment Consultant

- 3-5 years experience
- Head office Location
- Dynamic environment

Our client is Australian owned and has had a national foot print since 1999. The role of Commercial Recruitment Consultant is located in their Head Office in Mulgrave. As an established Recruiter, you will work with current clients and have the ability and desire to keep building solid relationships to deliver permanent high level white collar solutions.

Your commercial acumen will see you as the go to person for your sector. You will have 3-5 years in Commercial Recruitment and be a self starter that has initiative. You will be given scope to build the business and either run a desk or build a division.

You will work with a team of experienced Consultants to bounce ideas off and a Manager who treats you like an adult with the flexibility to run your own desk. You will be rewarded for your commitment and reliability with a clear succession plan that is derived from your vision and corporate goals.
